Every year, people of all ages find new and often very dangerous ways to abuse substances to get high. This show will look at the emerging trends related to illicit drug use, underage drinking, and non-medical use of prescription and over-the-counter medications.

Join host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and a panel of experts in this important and timely Webcast as they address the challenges and successes of treating individuals who are becoming alcohol or drug dependent while living on the dangerous frontiers of substance abuse.

Panelists include:

- Dr. Jane C. Maxwell, Research Professor, Center for Social Work Research, The University of Texas at Austin
- Vicki L. Sickels, Chemical Dependency Counselor, Clinical Trials Office
- Dr. Norine Ashley, Therapist and Clinical Supervisor, The White Mountain Apache Tribe, Apache Behavioral Health Services
- Dr. Wilson Compton, Director, Division of Epidemiology, Services and Prevention Research, NIDA

This Webcast also contains personal stories about people in recovery and interviews from the treatment providers and others in the field that help make recovery possible.
